

Transatlantic Future Leaders Forum

The Transatlantic Future Leaders Forum (TFLF) has been established as an internship platform enabling the brightest Polish students to serve as interns in the offices of top lawmakers in Washington and London.

TFLF is a tool for mentoring and support of exceptionally bright and talented university student. Beside the internship TFLF also organizes meetings with leaders from political, academic and business environments in both London and Washington, D.C.

You can apply through our website until
15th of March 2019

For more information visit our website: www.transatlanticforum.org

To apply for an internship applicants must be:

- ▶ enrolled full-time in a degree-granting course at a Polish or foreign university or college,
- ▶ be born on or after 1 January 1993,
- ▶ hold Polish citizenship,
- ▶ be fluent in English language and remain in good academic standing.

We look for candidates who are proactive, motivated and have a record of involvement in extra-curricular initiatives. Experience in the NGO sector will be advantageous.

Online Application

To apply for our summer internship program you will need to complete the online application on our website. The closing date for the 2019 edition is 15th of March 2019.

Oral Examination

If you have been successful with your online application you will be invited for a competency based interview in Warsaw. The interview will be held in English by the program committee on a weekend in the first half of April.

Those applicants who receive the recommendation of the committee will have their dossiers sent to the MPs and Congressmen participating in our program by the end of April. The candidates accepted for the internship will receive a formal invitation by the beginning of May 2019